Proposed motion for Annual General Meeting to change the constitution

The TCF constitution itself recommends regular revision to keep it in line with church practice and to best serve the congregation.

Two years ago we moved a motion to trial 2 meetings per year and at the upcoming AGM we will move a motion with a proposed wording change to formalise this practice in the constitution.

CURRENT:

5.1 Ordinary church meetings to consider the life and ministry of the church must be held at least three times each year.

5.2 Ordinary church meetings shall normally be called by a decision of the previous meeting. Additional meetings will be called if requested by a pastor, the leadership team, or one quarter of the membership of the church.

(THE ABOVE assumes that the AGM will form a fourth meeting in each year - though in practice many churches run it concurrent to one of the other scheduled meetings.)

PROPOSED:

5.1 Ordinary church meetings to consider the life and ministry of the church shall be held twice yearly.

Usually one in February and one in August (in conjunction with the specified requirement of the AGM)

5.2 Additional meetings will be called if requested by a pastor, the leadership team, or one quarter of the membership of the church.

Nomination forms for leadership are available from Chris or Steve. Voting by members will be at the AGM on 1 August.

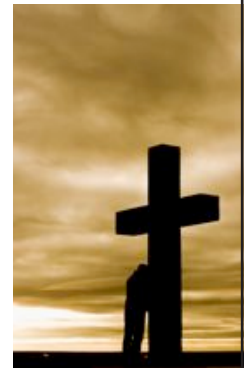

Sunday 11th July 2010
